Re: United States v. Glenn Blicht,
19 Cr. 591 (AT)

Dear Judge Torres:

We represent Glenn Blicht in the above-captioned matter and write to seek the Court's approval for Mr. Blicht to travel to Aruba from December 20, 2019 through January 3, 2020. The Pretrial Services Office does not object to this request. The Government takes no position, as long as an additional restriction set forth below is imposed by the Court.

Mr. Blicht was arrested on July 26, 2019 and presented before Magistrate Judge Stewart D. Aaron. Judge Aaron set the following terms for Mr. Blicht's release: (a) a $100,000 personal recognizance bond; (b) signed by two financially responsible people; (c) travel limited to the Southern and Eastern Districts of New York, as well as the District of New Jersey and the District of Connecticut; (d) the surrender of travel documents; (e) the imposition of pretrial supervision; and (f) an order that Mr. Blicht have no contact with "any victims or witnesses including individuals referenced in the complaint or similarly situated." Your Honor amended the "no contact" provision at the request of Mr. Blicht and with the consent of the Government on October 24, 2019. He pled guilty before Your Honor on October 16, 2019 and will be sentenced on February 12, 2020.

Mr. Blicht would be accompanied on this trip by his mother, wife, two adult daughters, aunt, cousins, and additional family members. Mr. Blicht's extended family has been traveling to Aruba in December every year for more than twenty years, as the trip was important to Mr. Blicht's late father and they have carried on the tradition since his passing. The travel arrangements were made in May of this year, before Mr. Blicht was arrested or knew he was under investigation. Mr. Blicht's flights were purchased using airline miles.

There is no risk of flight in this situation. Mr. Blicht and his family are U.S. citizens and lifelong residents of the United States. He has been a model supervisee on pretrial release. Mr. Blicht immediately sought to accept responsibility for his conduct on the day of his arrest, including in his post-arrest statement. In addition, Aruba (as a component kingdom of the Netherlands) has an extradition treaty with the United States.

In light of the above, the Pretrial Services Office has no objection to this request. The Government has advised us that they take no position on the travel, on the condition that the Court require Mr. Blicht to call his Pretrial Services officer once per day during the trip, including on holidays. Mr. Blicht consents to the addition of this restriction.

Thank you very much for your consideration of this matter.

Respectfully submitted,

Telemachus P. Kasulis

GRANTED. Defendant shall call his Pretrial Services officer on December 20, 2019, and on each subsequent day through January 3, 2020.

SO ORDERED.
